

Billy Walker, She's Feeling Like A New Man Tonight

She's feeling like a new man tonight she's wanting someone else to hold her tight
I can see her eyes all wandering and she has someone in sight
She's feeling like a new man tonight
It's hard to love someone not satisfied
But I'll keep a loving her and just close my eyes
She's thinks that the reality is this slice of life she's feeling like a new man tonight
( steel )
She's feeling like a new man tonight she'll slip out and be gone until daylight
Well it almost drives me crazy when she gets out of sight
And she's feeling like a new man tonight
It's hard to love someone...
Yes she's feeling like a new man tonight
