

Bipolar, Dollhouse

I look into me and feel this something you will never see
Trapped in skin clearly not meant for me
Can't control the only thing I've ever known

This person that's locked up inside of me can't escape
The fire that's blazing inside of me burns away

Im trying to change me
Im trying to grow
Im certain you'll love me
When I have evolved
When Im free, when I've reached some kind of reprieve

Chorus x2
