

Bird York, Haunting You

The days done and the moon's up and I'm pacing the cage of my heart I cannot stop this aching always leaves me dizzy with the Need just wanna feel someone that's the time I wonder what it is you're doing and I slip in your mind like a daydream I am guilty of haunting you I am the song that stays in your mind I am the breeze you feel upon you I am the ghost in your bed stirring your desire in the silence in the shadows in the uncharted land of your heart you will hear me calling to you saying don't be afraid of the dark you're not alone I'm closer than the breath within you I am under your skin , can you feel it?
