

Birdy, Ruins I

Sweet surrender comes
After the dawn
We knew it was over long before
Don't look over your shoulder as you go
Dreams we made like grains of sand
You built me up to tear me down
Awakenin' on broken ground
Don't look back for me, can't save you now

It's a cold, cold life
We'll never be the same again
I was blind
Now I'm seein' through it
It's a cold, cold life
You'll never see me again
You and I
Will lie in ruins

Wavin' you white flags through the smoke
You tell me you want me, I know you don't Leave it behind, give up the ghost
Don't look over your shoulder as you
So how long have you known?
You knew I was sad, was I low?
So how long have you known?
How I see you now, it's cold

It's a cold, cold life
We'll never be the same again
I was blind
Now I'm seein' through it
It's a cold, cold life
You'll never see me again
You and I
Will lie in ruins

Ruins
Ruins
Ruins
We'll never be the same again
Ruins
Ruins
Ruins
We'll never be the same again
Ruins
Ruins
Ruins
We'll never the same again
You and I
Will lie in ruins

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
