

Birdy, Second Hand News

i am a book of mistakes and it's just getting worse every new one i make is a rumor you heard

cause these days
i am self-destructive the way i love i push away every Chance cause it's never enough, my love you can take the things they say

as the bitter truth
don't throw it all away
on second hand news

cause if i just let go
if my heart could choose i would burn these Bridges i've built and find my way back to you no, don't throw it all away

been a broken machine since the day you've been gone on a loop in a dream did you think i'd move on?

crying silent tears in the next door room cause everybody's here but you so i wrote you out this message but i stopped myself from sending it off if i just let go
