

Birdy, Young Heart

I have to say goodbye for now
It doesn't mean that
I don't love you anymore

I am still a young heart
There's so much i don't know
And i am changing

And it's been on my mind some time
I found a way to never let it show
But it was too hard

I am just a young heart
It's time that i let go
And you are my light
And i am so lonely
But i know that i must go
