

Bitch Alert, Last Check

Sitting in a car, another city ahead
Listening to a song filled with memories of us
Arguments and deepest lies
Empty fights - I'm always right
This seems to be the fall apart - time
Baby we got to move on

Last time when I checked
It was only pure hate in my eyes

Hope you see these past seven months have been
The very best time in my life
Moment when you fall asleep
Is now the moment when my life begins
You can't turn the page no more
I've got my head on the floor

Last time when I checked
It was only pure hate in my eyes

You miss me when you're having downers from your last night's dreams
But hey, take more when I'm gone again
You miss me when you're having downers from your last night's dreams
But hey, take more and I'm gone again

Last time when I checked
I'd only white noise in my head
