

Bitch Alert, Latenight Lullaby

When it get's dark in this town
It feels like everyone's asleep
But you come to me and you ask me out and i say okay now
For tonight, tonight is for us

You've got me babe
And it feels so good to be on top of you
I've got you boy
And it feels so good to be on top of you, on top of you

Now i can't feel a thing
I am numb i'm everything you want
Whatta joke, i said go, boy you have to be one hundred percent
Perfect
And tonight, tonight you prove me

You've got me babe
And it feels so good to be on top of you
I've got you boy
And it feels so good to be on top of you, on top of you
