

Bitch Brigade, Run

You've been keeping all your secrets in the dark.
I've been waiting for a chance and now the time has come to see just what you are you're all alone.
And it kills but you know you have to pick your feet up and walk out of here.
Yeah you've got to get yourself together.
And you know all you wanna do is
Run from all the things that keep you tied here.
Slowly break away from
Run from all the things that keep you tied here.
Slowly break away from
Run from all the things that keep you tied here.
Slowly break away from
Run from all the things that keep you tied here.
Slowly break away
from all the things that keep you stuck in this place.
Run from all the things that keep you tied here.
Slowly break away from
Run from all the things that keep you tied here.
Slowly break away from
Run from all the things that keep you tied here.
Slowly break away
from all the things that keep you stuck in this place.
