

Bitter Sweet, Love Revolution

Take a moment to decide
What is wrong, what is right
Let's celebrate the art of dreaming
Are you naughty, are you nice ?
What would you sacrifice, for exactly what it is you needed ?
Close your eyes, let your hands go
Come inside, we're flying
Come to the love
Let's come together for a change
Circle of love
So we can become one again
It's hot enough outside to burn my skin on the Sidewalk with me a little longer
We shouldn't have to make believe that we live in harmony
What happened to the 60's peaceful colors ?
Butterflies and fairies, painting purple skies
We're flying
Come to the love
Let's come together for a change
Circle of love
So we can become one again
Let's come together for a change
I think it's time we put our souls up on display
Our remains are all we have to demonstrate our piece of mind, our window in
To everything we believe in
I live for passion, live for pain
I live for every single day
One more night, one more hour, one last high
We're flying
Come to the love (Come to the love revolution)
Let's come together for a change
Circle of love (Let's make some love resolutions)
So we can become one again
