

Bjork, Headphones

genius to fall asleep to your tape last night sounds go through the muscles these abstract wordless movements they start off cells that haven't been touched before

these cells are virgins

my headphones
they saved my life
your tape
it lulled me to sleep

nothing will be the same

i'm fast asleep

i like this resonance
it elevates me
i don't recognize myself
this is very interesting

my headphones
your tape
it lulled me to sleep

i'm fast asleep now

i'm fast asleep

your tape
it lulled me to sleep
