

Black Abyss, Frozen Tears

Frozen Tears

Firstt time I ever saw her
Standing there she looked to me
A burning fire in her eyes
So much emotions in her
But deep inside I always knew
That she been hurt so many times
I see frozen tears
In your crystal eyes
How could I ever tell her
What she means to me by now
Shes like a bird with broken wings
I wish I could make her see
All the feelings burn in me
I just want to make her fly again
I see frozen tears
In your crystal eyes
Forever I will keep her
In my heart shell never leave
To make the fire burning on
And when our last day has come
When its time to say goodbye
I know there wont be no more tears
I see frozen tears
In your crystal eyes
