

Black Heaven, Necromancer

Im longing for boundless freedom
That will come deep from my heart
Theres no place for god in heaven
And his kingdom falls apart

Sometimes I wish I could be stronger
Than the fear inside my eyes
A red rose withers in my hands
I see the world in black and white

And I dont love you anymore
Like I hated you once before

Follow me into the darkness
Smell the sweat of godless nights
Can you grasp your whole existence
Can you grasp my lifelong fight

I know Im anything but insane
I need someone to stand by me
I cant remember what has happened
I am the one I try to be

Im a necromancer
