

Black Label Society, Black Sunday

Destroyer of my visions
Come and enter me
Reside over my vengeance
Redemption set me free
God in my hands
Staring down on pain
No use of mercy
With a fistful of hate
The light that once shined
Has long given way
Embracing my hand
Becoming Black Sunday
Fill me with your strength now
Limitless unknown
Destroyer of my visions
Return me to my home
God in my hands
Staring down on pain
No use of mercy
With a fistful of hate
The light that once shined
Has long given way
Embracing my hand
Becoming Black Sunday
No need for remorse
No need to forgive
For all that remains
All day that shall forever live
God in my hands
Staring down on pain
No use of mercy
With a fistful of hate
The light that once shined
Has long given way
Embracing my hand
Becoming Black Sunday
