

Black Label Society, Demise Of Sanity

It's gonna break you son it's gonna run you through Forget the past and all you ever knew
You've never known such fear
You've never shed such tears
It'll have you wishin you were never here

Where have I gone?
Blacked out on my death ride
Twisted and broken down
Forever on the wrong side
Where have I gone?
Blacked out on my death ride
Twisted and broken down

All that has been,
All that's to be
No tomorrow,
no Demise of Sanity
All that has been,
All that's to be
No tomorrow,
no Demise of Sanity

Straight to the depths of hell
Ain't got no soul to sell
Death on death, the eternal funeral bell
You've never known such fear
You've never shed such tears
It'll have you wishin you were never here

Where have I gone?
Blacked out on my death ride
Twisted and broken down
Forever on the wrong side
Where have I gone?
Blacked out on my death ride
Twisted and broken down

All that has been,
All that's to be
No tomorrow,
no Demise of Sanity
All that has been,
All that's to be
No tomorrow,
no Demise of Sanity
