

Black Label Society, Suicide Messiah

Crawl through the flames
That eat your flesh
Drowned in the waters
That know you best
Step inside I've been
Waiting here for you

On your knees
For you shall crawl
Flying so high
You'll never fall
Step inside we've been
Waiting here for you

Bow down
You chose your maker
Never gives
He's always a taker
The electric burns
That fuel the fire
It's just your
Suicide messiah
Oh yeah
Oh yeah
Bow down
You chose your maker
He never gives
He's always a taker
Electric burns
That fuel the fire
It's just your
Suicide messiah

Walk through the streets
That know your name
All that's pure is now insane
Step inside I've been
Waiting here for you
Another trip, another lie
Life's hand of doom
Has you feeling fine
Step inside we've been
Waiting here for you

Bow down
You chose your maker
Never gives
He's always a taker
The electric burns
That fuel the fire
It's just your
Suicide messiah
Oh yeah
Oh yeah
Bow down
You chose your maker
He never gives
He's always a taker
Electric burns
That fuel the fire
It's just your
Suicide messiah

-Solo-

Oh yeah
Bow down
You've chose your maker
Never gives
He's always a taker
Bow down
You've chose your maker
He never gives
He's always a taker
Electric burns
That fuel the fire
