

Black Label Society, Throwin' It All Away

You couldn't feel the sunlight apon your face your little word a little out of place you couldn't hear the ocean you couldn't hear the waves i know you want to come back i know you mean to stay

all you touched
all you know
all you loved, yeah

well i can see your smile can you see my tears i reach to hold you
but you aint there you left a hole so big lord...beyond repair ill try to find forgiveness in taking what will never share

all you knew all you loved
you just left them there with nothing to say chorus:

You're just throwin it all away no you didnt care to see the light of day
like the sand apon the shore your crashing waves come and took you away
