

Black Milk, Ultrawide

the sickman's in my room he has rendered me asleep spread his lungs across my bed now I'm doin' time the sickman's in my mind robs the days I pray to keep and every breath I take is cold I'm set ultrawide apart

way beyond the frame
caught in a leakin' story ultrawide apart from me watch the dirt beneath my feet as it's creepin' up it leaves me unresolved am I fallin' off the track ? whatsoever I have fought off has now become my life

has now become my life ...

from what you think I am

from what you think I am I'm caught in a leakin' story ultrawide apart
I'm ultrawide apart
