

Black Moon, Murder MC's

[Verse 1]

[Buckshot:]

I woke up in the night
grabbed my forehead
wipe my forehead with the sweat on to the bed Deep inside thought thinking of a way to strapped and walk the streets without getting clapped
Just because I'm tying the fuzz growing in my buzz
I'm doing my justice, bust this slug to the ignorant
Who said I didn't have knowledge of self
So come and feel the wrath
So listen
First of all let me explain
That when i drop a rhyme I I make it hard enough to gain
The god is heavy
I blow you up like dynamite
Into my dome I let the L ignite Fight, I take you on flight here
The war starts here.

[BCC:]

See we murder MC's every day, motherfuckers dont play,
straight from the Bucktown side of the block Keep your shit hot
Like we said, That's when all the madness stops

[Verse 2]

[Buckshot:]

To all the Godz who know who's the coloured man the colored man is the obvious, you understand?
I kill him, and drill 'im in my bootcamp
Who can't survive in the creek?
You can't Champion, bootcampian click stick and move
I bust your shit
Move and stick
It's the original crook Stomping through your army, what!
Gortex to your head
Keep your eyes shut
But, I'll take you in consideration
My occupation is to bust your federation with my ammunition
Flipping precision, being precise He's right, I'm nice
You can check my status and my apparatus
See the baddest Buckshot shot the boodah Murder hero to clean your pipe like Ruger Smoke a bag of charm then I drop the bomb, Buckshot I represent the Arm Leg Leg Arm
Head, natty dread, boy big him up Roll thick like syrup cause chaos and terror

[Chorus]

I had a vision
It appeared to me in the form of a devil but the rebel wasn't there to see for me this is the year to be the son of the seven, representing the sea

the heatseeker
the cypher maker quick to take a sec to re-a-lize, I burn right through you Double guage
I'm pointing the rage at your culu

....
We blew the motherfucker
Now we outta here.

[Chorus]
[Buckshot:] MURDAH! MURDAH! MURDA
