

Black My Heart, Tick Tock

i ripped through the pages of your life and saw your face writin between the lines i watched you cry and saw your tears seep and hide behind the story of your life you said you'd "die for me" the only words you ever really meant cuz now your dead (dead) to us dead to me. you knew who youwere from the start and time dont change with me your clock keeps tickin better hope your heart dont stop so lock your windows lock your doors, im comin to destroy YOUR everything YOUR FUCKED!
