

Black President, Elected

I'm no one trick, two-bit, third world choice
I wanna be elected
I'll meet you at the clinic in a gold Rolls Royce
I wanna be elected
The kids need a savior but they keep getting fakes
I wanna be elected
We're gonna a put a little black in the red & blue states
I gotta be elected
Elected
I've never lied to you like those D.E.A. fools
I wanna be elected
About the quality of drugs you can buy in our schools
I wanna be injected
Elected
Hallelujah I wanna be selected
Everybody in the Divided States Of America
Let's go start a class war and I'll be your bomb
I wanna be elected
Black and white together, funky and strong
I wanna be elected
Elected, selected, airport inspected
I wanna be elected
"Announcing the nomination for a new party, a third party, A BLACK PARTY"
