Black President, Elected

I'm no one trick, two-bit, third world choice

I wanna be elected

I'll meet you at the clinic in a gold Rolls Royce

I wanna be elected

The kids need a savior but they keep getting fakes

I wanna be elected

We're gonna a put a little black in the red & amp; blue states

I gotta be elected

Elected

I've never lied to you like those D.E.A. fools

I wanna be elected

About the quality of drugs you can buy in our schools

I wanna be injected

Elected

Hallelujah I wanna be selected

Everybody in the Divided States Of America

Let's go start a class war and I'll be your bomb

I wanna be elected

Black and white together, funky and strong

I wanna be elected

Elected, selected, airport inspected

I wanna be elected

" Announcing the nomination for a new party, a third party, A BLACK PARTY"
