

Black Radio, Zero Year

Break will never come
Will never stop us fight
For better life, for getting what we want
And after all, the stronger one survives

Peace will never come
Don't ever say this word
It's nothing more than only legends
Fight, you gotta fight, forever till you die

Come back now /10x
To the zero year

Signs we're lookin' for
Will never show up, pray
For none and all, for all the rights you've lost,
And all you've done the thousand times before

Let's escape the world and never hunt again
For better life for getting what we want
So this is one another fairytale

Ain't got a time for confessions,
We together run away
I didn't ask for permission,
Let's together run away
You better hide your aggression,
Coz everything depends on
Do you wanna see me again?

Come back now /10x
To the zero year

Get what you want,
Some of them didn't find this wrong,
Gotta go, eat the world like a virus
Well, let them die, coz I don't like resistance
Shit is your love, only war is a business

Come back now /10x
To the zero year
