

Black Sabbath, The Law Maker

The horizon breaks, where a figure stands
Close your eyes and prey it's a vision of god's command

[Chorus:]

He's evil and mysterious, people fear his name
He's not here for deliverance, no
He's the lawmaker

He never speaks, but his tasks we're told
To seek out souls of the sinner, he'll trade for gold

[Chorus]

Silver mountains won't save you from hell
The prince of darkness inside you will dwell
Oh your weakness your past
The Lawmaker comes

[Chorus]

He's the Lawmaker
