Black Sabbath, The Law Maker

The horizon breaks, where a figure stands Close your eyes and prey it's a vision of god's command

[Chorus:] He's evil and mysterious, people fear his name He's not here for deliverance, no He's the lawmaker

He never speaks, but his tasks we're told To seek out souls of the sinner, he'll trade for gold

[Chorus]

Silver mountains won't save you from hell The prince of darkness inside you will dwell Oh your weakness your past The Lawmaker comes

[Chorus]

He's the Lawmaker
