

Black Stone Cherry, Please Come In

I have leaned out my window
You know she's no longer there
There's an angel standing
In the place where she once cared
Couldn't be that easy
For her to say goodbye

Please come in
Don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in
Don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt no more

It must be the time
For me to leave it behind
Cause there's a new
Day out there
Where the sun
Will always shine

Please come in
Don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in
Don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt no more

If you look out your window
And there's an angel there
I hope she plays guitar
With flowers in her hair

-Solo-

Please come in
But don't pretend
Won't you please come in
Listen baby

Please come in
Don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in
Don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt no more

-Solo-

{under solo}
Please come in
And don't you pretend
