

Blackbud, Lost In Time

It's been a while since I saw you here,
And I think you've changed its clear,
Well maybe it's only been a couple of years,

Welcome back,
You've been lost in time,
Welcome back,
You've been lost in time,

Look around is everything,
How you're remembering,
Do people look so differently at you,
See you're like an animal in a zoo,
And I'm not afraid to step inside your cage,

It's been a while since I went away,
I was lost really missing I'd say,
This is just a case of seeing waves,

Welcome back,
You've been lost in time,
Welcome back,
You've been lost in time,

Ten thousand years apart,
Will never change the way I feel,
Touch what's not from this world,
Yes it is real,
We'll have to start catching up my dear,
Tell me where you been,
I'll tell you everything,

Ahhhh....
