

Blacklisted, Bruising Serenade

I couldn't tell you what I was thinking
God only knows
You've got me stumbling over myself feeling so low
Don't tell me about love, you only love yourself
You're a liar
You're a liar
I slept in deathbeds
Felt so disconnected
You've got me running on empty
You gave me that look that makes me feel like a lesser man
I couldn't feel your face hit the back of my hand
Don't tell me about love, you only love yourself
You're a liar
You're a liar
You're wrong, I'm right
You just can't see the truth
Your built on lies
Dry your eyes its only a bruise
