

Blackmail, Meddlesome

never change the rate, even if you fail when you're falling down too deep you have to call my name, then you'll be safe don't forget to breathe, coz i hate it when you stop

why don't you call my name?

i blew bubbles through your ears while you fell asleep there is nothing that you have to fear when you call my name then you came to me and took everything you need i don't like it when you're stuck

why don't you call my name?
