

Blackmail, Never Forever

today i wasn't evil
for what i have become i laughed until the walls fell to recognize the sun you say i'm unforgiven for whatever i have done and now you tell me

never say it's not forever take it from tomorrow
over, say it's never over unless it's gone tomorrow

despite all they have done i laughed until the walls came down with everything you've done

you say you're suffering...
