

Blackmore's Night, Castles And Dreams

Solitaire with a song in her heart
But what a sad song to sing
Turned her back on all that she knew
In the hopes of a golden ring...

Chorus:
And the rains came down
And the stars fell from the sky
Oh, how dark the night...
It always seems those Castles and Dreams
Fade with the morning light...

Such a sad story
That time loves to tell
Copper coins shine for the sun
From the floor of the wishing well

[Repeat chorus]

So the jewel of jeopardy
Shines with each dangerous step
So unsure of what we've become
What we have and what we have left...

[Repeat chorus x2]

It always seems those Castles and Dreams
Fade with the morning light...
