Blackmore's Night, Mid Winter's Night

Mid winters night (1st part in Provencial French)

The bells are ringing
On Mid Winters Night
The moon sets all alone

And once again I try to sleep before the morning light

Too soon the sun will come a-calling over the hills in our little town Too soon the snow will start falling over the world without a sound While in my room dreams are a-fleeting I close my eyes one more time All too quickly the dawn is breaking and I must leave the night behind.

The bells are ringing
On Mid Winters Night
The moon sets all alone
And once again I try to sleep before the morning light

The bells are ringing
On Mid Winters Night
The moon sets all alone
And once again I try to sleep before the morning light
And once again I try to sleep before the morning light
before the morning light
before the morning light
