

Blade, Returning To Society (Live)

I'm livin' in a dreamland
I think the world revolves around my head
And I keep it in the palm of my hand
Not a world of hate but instead
Where peace walks around us
Where hate is nonexistent
But I have never heard such
Pure motherfkin' bullshit

Chorus:

I'm returning to society
This dreams gone on way to far
Be returning to society
For that's where we are
There may be hate
May be suicide
But your world is fake
That you can't DENY
I'm blocking out the hatred
I'm resisting the wrong
But my whole world is fake and
I've dreamt it oh so long

Chorus

As I see a wall before
Damn near touches the sky
I can't get around
Dig udnerground
I don't know why
As I see a wall before me
Damn near goes half the world around
It's a wall of peace
A wall of care
And I pulverize the motherfker back into the ground
I'm returning to society
And I'm gonna have face reality
I'm returning to society
So I'm face reality
Face reality
Face the reality
Damn reality
Damn your fantasy
There's nothing it's good for
Not any-fkin'-more
Not anymore
Anymore
Anymore
Not anymore
Gonna face reality
Thank you, God bless.
