

Blake Lewis, Human

I'm just human, pure emotion
Meant to love you, say you want to
I'm just human, pure devotion
If I can't have you, what will I do

What I did
The writing is evident
These walls are closing in
Don't wanna break free
Couldn't get enough
Which led me to fall in love
These veins are flowing lust
Shooting through me

"You found my weakness
I can't defeat this
And I'm feeling that you're feeling the same"

"I'm just human
Born to do things to you
Sugar, tell me where and when to start
Woah
I'm just human
And I don't wanna lose it
Gotta find a way into your heart
Before it's too late"

I'm just human, pure emotion
Meant to love you, say you want to
I'm just human, pure devotion
If I can't have you, what will I do

I can't help myself
For reasons I cannot help
You've got me like no one else
Struggle to breathe
I know we've played this game
See though me like cellophane
Can we keep it simple, babe
Let me go deep

"You found my weakness
I can't defeat this

"I'm just human
Born to do things to you
Sugar, tell me where and when to start
Woah
I'm just human
And I don't wanna lose it
Got to find a way into your heart
Before it's too late"

Now we're losing track of time
This love must be a crime
Do whatever that you please
Just as long as it is here with me

I'm just human, pure emotion
If I can't have you, what will I do

"I'm only, I'm only Human"

"I'm just human
Born to do things to you
Sugar, tell me where and when to start
(Tell me where and when to start)
Woah
Gotta find a way into your heart
(Find a way into your heart)"

"I'm just human
Born to do things to you
Sugar, tell me where and when to start
Woah
I'm just human
