

Blake Shelton, Never Lovin' You

Now listen to me, this here is how it used to be.....

I can see the day that I wont wanna hang out with the boys all night

Yeah and I can see a day when I'll walk off this dead end job for good

And I can see a day when I wont be afraid of getting older

But no matter what I do

Honey I cant see me never lovin' you

Some things are bound to change

But some things stay the same like they ought to

Some things are meant to be

Just like you and me together

If I die today or if i find a way to live forever

No matter what I do

Darlin' I cant see me never lovin' you

Yeah and I can see a time when you wont think you look as good as you used to

Ohh and I can see a time your auburn hair will turn to gray

And I can see a time when you think that you wont blow my mind but I can tell you

No matter what I do

Darlin' I cant see me never lovin' you

Some things are bound to change

But some things stay the same like they ought to

Some things are meant to be

Just like you and me together

If I die today or if i find a way to live forever

No matter what I do

I cant see me never lovin' you

No matter what I do

Honey I cant see me never lovin' you
