

Blame the City!, And When The Sky Was Opened

my eyes have shut you out, i'm falling like, a broken cloud, my skin has been shaking, or maybe it's your heart that's quaking.
my exit's coming up,
just let me off at the next stop, i can't take this journey anymore, my legs (lungs?) are as tired as my feet are on the floor.

[Chorus]

i've followed every step of the way, i've listened to all you've had to say, the sky has opened
it's a brand new day,
i haven't seen you any other way
WOO!
