

Blane, Wake Up

The world out there
Dreary, cold, and sometimes miserable
Don't be scared
Live it up every chance you get

Wake up get out of bed my dear
But you can take it easy
This ride proves to never ever stop

Don't fall into the dead end
You're drowning
In a place you've never been before
All the things you do
Are the reasons that
My heart keeps yearning
For more of you

Look me eye to eye
I know what you're thinking
But you can whisper it in my ear
Take a deep breath,
Another deep breath
And I promise you'll forget it
Overpowering desires
Linger when I'm away from you

Wake up get out of bed my dear
But you can take it easy
This ride proves to never ever stop

Don't fall into the dead end
You're drowning
In a place you've never been before
All the things you do
Are the reasons that
My heart keeps yearning
For more of you
