

Blank & Jones, The Hardest Heart

Caress the hardest heart (x2)

Let the morning sun proclaim
The light of the world
Let the golden day unfurl
On every wave
On every hill

Each angered fist uncurl
Caress the hardest heart
Stir the sleeping earth
Each stone
Each blade of grass

The soul of the world
Ignite a brand new day
Let the morning sun proclaim
A brand new start
Caress the hardest heart

Caress the hardest heart
[Repeat all verses]

[Last verse]
The soul of the world
Ignite a brand new day
A brand new start
A brand new way
