

Blank Logic, Maybe

Verse 1: I've been in love with you since the freshman dance.
Never thought I'd have a chance.
Never thought you'd care for me.
Looking for love aimlessly.
I tried it for a little while,
But none of them had your smile.

Chorus: Sadie, now im all alone.
Maybe, you could be my own.

Verse 2: I think your perfect in every way.
I prayed I'd be with you some day.
I dont know where to begin.
I love the touch of your skin.
Is it any surprise, I get lost in those eyes.
