Blank Logic, Maybe

Verse 1: I've been in love with you since the freshman dance. Never thought I'd have a chance. Never thought you'd care for me. Looking for love aimlessly. I tried it for a little while, But none of them had your smile.

Chorus: Sadie, now im all alone. Maybe, you could be my own.

Verse 2: I think your perfect in every way. I prayed I'd be with you some day. I dont know where to begin. I love the touch of your skin. Is it any surprise, I get lost in those eyes.
