

Blanks 77, Drag

put on your lipstick it looks just right every night is like saturday night everybodys liking what they see sometimes looks are deceiving

(Chorus:)
your a drag

A pretty face in a magazine are you a lady or a closet queen another dream is laid to waste cuz your just not another pretty face some think your easy just a little sleazy some even beg you to stop your teasing if they knew they wouldn't dare then there's some that just dont care
