

Blanks 77, Spirit of 77

I'm caught in a fuckin' time warp the styles never changing the music all sounds the same what ever happened to the punk rock of the past well now here we are to bring it back at last

(Chorus:)
here's to the spirit of ' 77 and havin' fun in a punk rock band
and the punk rock of the past everyone concerned about the fashion trends but not me I don't ear those threads the time for change has finally arrived and now I know punk will survive the old timers, they won't come around but we don't need them to keep punk around they don't remember the fun they used to have they just don't care, well that's too bad
