

Blaq Audio, Cities of Night

I've seen what you have made
In all it's beauty
What I cannot create
I recognize
Let's watch the night explode
Just hold onto me
I'll whisper you this truth
Uncompromised

Wait for a heart that never lies
But not this time
Watch those explosions in the sky
And you'll go blind,
But not this time.

Will you live in hope
Or dark desire?
What can I say?
Oh,
Fuck love, give me fire

Have you seen what I've made
Beneath the wreckage?
Just suffer through the dust
And there you'll find
The color of a night
That burned out from us
Surrounded by it's glow
Our city lies

Wait for a love that never dies
And you've lost life
One overdoes just to survive
We'll shine this time
We'll make headlines

Will you live in hope
Or dark desire?
Oh,
What can I say?
Oh,
Fuck love, give me fire
Fire

Will you live in hope
Or dark desire?
Oh,
What can I say?
Oh,
Fuck love, give me fire
Fire

Give me fire, fire
