

Blaq Audio, On A Friday

Did he want you?
Did you want to?
Did you question what it meant to you
With a beat between your breaths?

So let's cut clean to the sex scene.
Drop the white lines cuz no one is clean
And this beat won't wait for you, no
Safe to say that you won't recall
So let's just pretend nothing happened at all.

Oh my love where's the danger?
All my life I'm dancing with strangers.
I'm dancing with strangers

Did he want you?
Did you want to?
Did you question what they'd think of you
With a beat between your breaths?

So let's cut fast to the car crash
Where the future went down with the past
Cuz this beat won't wait for you, no
Safe to say that I can't recall,
So let's just admit nothing matters at all.

Oh my love where's the danger?
All my life I'm dancing with strangers.
Oh my love where's the danger?
All my life I'm dancing with strangers.
I'm dancing with strangers

All my life
All my life
All my life see
Oh oh oh

All my life
All my life
All my life see
Oh oh oh

All my life
All my life
All my life see
Oh oh oh

All my life
All my life
All my life see
Oh oh oh

Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
All of my life.
