

Blaq Audio, Snuff On Digital

Cutting through just like champagne petals
Sprinkled over the blackest sea
Urban stars will shine, electric, they keep on calling.
As they beckon I'm enamored of the sight.
No, everything won't be alright for me tomorrow.
Tomorrow may not come.

Ascending slowly with hopes of finding
One small moment of clarity
I escape the blackness cast upon me.
I still can't see as you bind me, murder me from miles away.
I will finish this today for you.
Tomorrow means nothing.

Immobile lights will fly tonight.
We'll watch them pass together as we part the rising sky.
I won't die without you.
These breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
But we won't fall forever.
Tightly bound we'll chase the ground
I won't die without you.

Descending quickly with hopes of sharing
All the things you've shared with me,
I'll chase the digital eye's below me.
Through them you'll see as I fall
With digital omniscient eyes
Capturing me one last time for you.
Tomorrow you will see.

Immobile lights will fly tonight.
We'll watch them pass together as we part the rising sky.
I won't die without you.
These breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
But we won't fall forever.
Tightly bound we'll chase the ground
I won't die without you.

This is a breakthrough.
Oh, forget me not.
This is my breakthrough.
Oh, forget me not.
We you see me soaring and the lights are screaming,
You'll forget me not.

We'll fly tonight...

Immobile lights will fly tonight.
We'll watch them pass together as we part the rising sky.
I won't die without you.
These breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
But we won't fall forever.
Tightly bound we'll chase the ground
I won't die...

I won't die...

I won't die without you.
