

Blaq Audio, The Fear On Being Found

I have been a world apart
Stuck in between time.
Head into the ground I'm found
Falling through fault lines.
I feel see through.
Can you see through me?

Could I change one thing?
Could I change your mind?
Shall we burn it just like the last time?
I can't change a thing, can't explain why I never felt it
Not even the first time.

Raise a glass and toast the flame
Just like the old days.
Swallow, but be careful, don't drown
The new ways you could say:
"Would you change this time?"
I'll begin to change my mind
When you can explain why
I feel see through.
Can you feel me?

Could I change one thing?
Could I change your mind?
Shall we burn it just like the last time?
I can't change a thing, can't explain why I never felt it
Not even the first time.

Shall we?
Nothings different.

Could I change one thing?
Could I change your mind?
Shall we burn it just like the last time?
I can't change a thing, can't explain why I never felt it
Not even the first time.
