Bleach, Land Of The Lost

He lives out there somewhere Beyond the land of the lost I hate me when I find That I laugh the most

With no cares out in his chair Just watching it all go by He dances on occasion On the roadside

Why do people say I think that he is strange and crazy, maybe Someone's gotta give And show him how to live today

I can be the one.

Here she comes, she's another one With tangled hair, in need of love She tries to hide her face From everyone in every place

Why do people say I think that she is strange and crazy, maybe Someone's gotta give and show her how to live Today

I can be the one...
