

Bleach, Straight Shooter

Flat face on the ground
You're unbelievable
A love that's never bound
It's unbelievable
Straight shooter without looking
Ready or not - here's what's cooking
You've got me fazed
Your grace is unbelievable

You have filled me once again
Steer me straight to be the man
After your own heart

Just as a man so unretrievable
I tried to walk without looking
It's clear to see that you're not joking
