

Bleach, Took It By The Hand

We took it by the hand
And we watered it like planned
But we just don't know
If it's gonna grow
The turning point is gone
But we're just pressing on
And I still don't know
If these flowers will grow

I don't mind the change if it makes you happy

So put all on black
And we ain't going back
To rewind the spin
To see what might have been
It would be a lie to say
That it wouldn't feel so great
Just to know how it's gonna end

I don't mind the change if it makes you happy
That's fine

And all I really know is I won't let go
I got a hand to hold and I won't let go
It's all I know
