

Bleach, You

I dont think my heart can take it
Another empty day might break it
I need you more than ever before
I found out what it is Im missing

You

I know your heart can barely take it
To see me grab this day and break it
I need you more than ever before
I found out what it is Im missing

You be the psalm writer
And I will be your psalm
You be the songwriter
And I will sing your song
